Acknowledgement
Fall 2006

Please print this page only, sign, and return in class the following acknowledgement to that you have read and understood both the Classroom Lecture Structure and your respective Course Syllabus.

Grades will not be recorded until this form is signed and returned to your instructor.

I, (print name) __________________________, have read and understood the Classroom Lecture Structure and the respective Course Syllabus which includes objectives, policies, class schedule/calendar and assignments, and all related materials including the course and instructor expectations and guidelines for (circle class):

Physics:  210       216       221       221lb
Math:     151       220       231       241       262
Humanities:  251     252       253
Philosophy:  101      120      123       130

Signature __________________________ Date ________

Please print this page, sign, and submit to your professor during your regularly scheduled class.